Pip Pip cocktail sippers

Welcome to Hermitage Rd, THE place to be since the 1930s when it was popular ballroom before the good people of Hitchin shed their tea dresses and two-steps and the rocking 50s came a-knocking! From then on "The Herm" welcomed great musicians to its stage: Fleetwood Mac, Thin Lizzy and a certain Eric Clapton riffed with Cream in the golden era in H town. In the 90s the maple sprung dance floor was subjected to foam parties and banging garage tunes. Many of you will remember nights out in the iconic (mainly for the wrong reasons) "Loft".

This year marks the 10 years since a local family re-invented these hallowed halls once more, Hermitage Rd Bar & Restaurant was born. It has been shaking up cocktails, cooking up a storm and scooping up awards since 2011. It's great to see you here, sit back, relax and peruse our cocktail list...we will take care of the rest.

Local scientist claims drinking cocktails makes you live longer

Hitchin bio-chemist Bryan Spurr, who claims to be 143 years of age, has spent seventy of those years developing a range of cocktails which he says "re-winds the clock, revitalises mental agility and puts a spring in one's step". Dr Spurr is currently fighting a legal battle to be allowed to market his mind-blowing mixers.

Disclaimer: The Herm in no way endorses, verifies or promotes Dr Spurr's claims but it is widely accepted that many of the team are on the advanced stages of the lab trial.

RAISE YOUR SPIRITS! -with the skateboarding nun

Local nun, Sister Mary O'Hanlon has launched her own brand of high-energy Holy Water sourced from an ancient well on her allotment. Sister Mary claims that one glass a day not only raises the spirits but reignited the vitality of youth. As seen here she has rediscovered her teenage passion for skateboarding. She is re-entering half pipe competitions and is rumoured soon to be sponsored by the pirates of the skateboarding world Scurv Crew. Scurv Founder & Hermitage Rd coffee barista Mungo Luke has not confirmed the figure on the sponsorship, expected to be into the millions. See if you can get it out of him when you pop in for a coffee downstairs.
